1 year ago. Now or in the future there will be a legit version that will cost money. He said not to watch the new episode because that is the first time he is using that particular. Alexei Surkov, the Deputy Prime Minister of Russia and the former Head of the Presidential Administration, has died at the age of 62 after suffering from injuries sustained in a car crash two weeks ago. Surkov's spokesman, Vladislav Surkov, confirmed the news on Monday saying that he died from a "complicated fracture of the skull and internal injuries" in a car crash in Vladivostok in Russia's Far Eastern region on Nov. 20. Putin and Surkov came up during the rule of Vladimir Putin's former close ally, Dmitry Medvedev. The two were more often at odds than at the same side. It was Medvedev who first brought Surkov into the Kremlin in 2010. In November 2010, Medvedev appointed Surkov as a political adviser to President Medvedev. At the time, Surkov said, "I'm not a politician, a [member] of government. I'm just a political adviser. I'm not a servant of the presidential administration." Surkov said he knew Putin was after him because he was the first political adviser to be named to the position. "I understand that a certain result will be expected. A result that is desirable and is in the interest of the country and of the authorities," he said. A former major in the KGB, Surkov rose up the ranks of the Russian security services and was eventually appointed as Putin's chief political officer. He was once described as the Rasputin of Russia's elite. Surkov played a controversial role in the 2014 Crimean crisis when Russia annexed the peninsula. He was accused of helping to arrange the coup to bring Crimea under the control of Moscow, a charge that the Kremlin denied. Despite the rumors, Surkov was never arrested or put under house arrest during his 18 years of service in the Russian government. In February 2016, Surkov was appointed deputy prime minister, a position he held until leaving Russian politics. He served as a deputy prime minister in Medvedev f678ea9f9e
